

“Lunch & Learn”

April 11th, 2024

Canopy

1300 El Camino Real

Menlo Park, CA 94025

International Trade
and Forfeiting Association

Speaker Biographies

Nasrin Nourizadeh - Divisional Vice President and Head of the Business Development and Marketing at FCIA Trade Credit & Political Risk.

FCIA is a division of Great American Insurance Company, which in turn is owned by American Financial Group. Since 1961, FCIA has been supporting its clients for their trade credit and political risk insurance needs.

Nasrin’s responsibilities include driving new business opportunities through building relations with top tier banks and financial institutions, corporates, and brokers. She collaborates with the executive management in setting and executing growth strategy and new product development. Nasrin leads all marketing initiatives in branding and positioning FCIA. Nasrin brings over 20 years of experience in marketing and business development. She has a B.A. in Accounting and Marketing from the University of Pennsylvania, the Wharton Business School.

