

Brendan Herley

Olea Global Pte. Ltd.

Principal, Americas

Brendan Herley is a well-regarded commercial banker with over 25 years' experience in trade finance, structured trade and syndicated loans, particularly in emerging markets. He regularly provides advisory services to clients and colleagues related to prevailing market conditions, potential risks and their impact on profitability.

Brendan is Olea Global's "Principal" for the Americas, spearheading the Stan Chart-owned fintech's growth in this hemisphere. He previously served in a business development role for Levantor Capital (2 years), headed Wells Fargo's Financial Institution Group loan distribution team for the Americas (6 years) and was a member of Standard Chartered's NY-based syndications team (10 years). In addition, Brendan is Co-Chair of ITFA Americas' advisory board having served on its predecessors, ATFA and AFIA, for 14 years.

Brendan holds a Bachelor's degree in Economics and Geography from University College London and a Master's degree in International Relations and Diplomacy from London University's School of Oriental and African Studies.
