

ITFA NEW MEMBERS, June 2025

ITFA is pleased to welcome the following institutions to its growing family:

National Australia Bank \(NAB\) is one of Australia's largest financial institutions, with a history dating back to 1858. As a leading bank in the Asia-Pacific region, NAB is committed to supporting businesses through a broad range of banking and financial services, including trade and working capital solutions. The bank plays a pivotal role in facilitating cross-border trade, helping clients manage risk and seize opportunities in both domestic and international markets.

Rebekah Murchie, Executive Trade & Working Capital, will serve as the main contact for ITFA-related matters.

With deep expertise in structured trade and working capital finance, NAB supports businesses of all sizes across industries, providing tailored solutions to meet complex financing needs. Leveraging its extensive global network and strong on-the-ground presence in key markets, NAB continues to be a trusted partner for institutions seeking to navigate the evolving trade landscape in Australia and beyond.
